

Headquarters of United Nations [Starting Line]

Difficulty ★★☆☆

At the starting line of the race, a group of celebrities have gathered to support and flag off the teams.

What did your team do to get ready for the race?

He played a violent and racist cop in a black comedy-drama based in small town America. (3 8)	Azerbaijan
He played a radical American activist leader in a biographical drama that took place in 1960s Chicago. (6 7)	Solomon Islands
He played a drug dealer who was a fatherly figure to a young child struggling with his sexuality and identity in a coming-of-age drama. (10 3)	Cameroon
She played a cool and fierce family lawyer in a drama about a couple going through a coast-to-coast divorce. (5 4)	Saint Kitts and Nevis
She played a single mother who raised her two children mostly alone in a drama spanning 12 years. (8 8)	South Sudan
He played a German bounty hunter in a revisionist Western who partners and takes on an apprentice. (9 5)	Bosnia and Herzegovina
She played an efficient cotton plantation worker in a biographical period-drama about an African-American who was kidnapped and sold into slavery. (6 5'1)	Uzbekistan
He played a convicted KGB spy in a historical drama about a prisoner exchange. (4 7)	Samoa
She played an encouraging mother in a romantic drama where her daughter seeks to clear the name of her wrongly charged lover. (6 4)	Sao Tome and Principe

[For accessibility purposes, the given country names are in the following colors in order – red, yellow, red, black, blue, yellow, white, blue, red]