Vogon poetry is known to be the third worst in the universe. If you are any good in poetry, maybe you can help make this one sound better.

Ode to Puzzle Hunts

Solve puzzles, come grab a portion
But make sure you do not blunder
Chances of success are none
Unless deeper down you grind

Clear mind would need to be employed
Best is after you had slumbered

Some puzzles you want to shred
Like what you would to a wig
Sound puzzles need a good hearing
And their numbers are not paltry
A clear answer we should target
If the puzzle appears mild
Give up and rest in the hotel?
Teammates might just break your jaw

Some puzzles are like a wordplay
Fun for just a single individual
Some may include food to consume
To see how the ideas converge
